

- (7) Fellowships will be offered primarily for clinical training of one to two years duration.
- (8) Clinical training programs should be practical in their orientation, and applicable to the needs and conditions of the home country. The ability of the host institution to provide such training will be an important factor in the selection process.
- (9) Fellows must have received sufficient training in internal medicine or other fields to pass all host country examinations that are necessary to the care of patients. Fellowships may be awarded to senior individuals who seek additional training but, in general, preference will be given to younger physicians who are at the beginning of their permanent careers.
- (10) Specific instructions and the necessary application forms can be obtained by writing directly to Jan J. Weening, M.D., Academic Medical Center, Meibergdreef 9, 1105 AZ Amsterdam, The Netherlands.

Erratum

Please note that the article cited below was published with an incorrect spelling of the name of the final author. The correct citation is as follows:

Aguilera G, Kapur S, Feuillan P, Sunar-Akbasak B, and Bhatia AJ: Developmental changes in angiotensin II receptor subtypes and AT<sub>1</sub> receptor mRNA in rat kidney. Kidney International 46:973-979, 1994

Editor's Notice: Erratum

Dr. Ian Darby of Heidelberg Hospital, Victoria, Australia, was a Guest Editor for the Symposium, "Renin-Angiotensin: The Molecular Idiom", which was published in the December 1994 issue of Kidney International. Prof. Darby's name was inadvertently omitted from the cover and Introduction. The Editors and Publisher of Kidney International regret this omission.
